Architectural Description

General Architectural Description:

The building at 600 W Jefferson St is a two-story single-family house built about 1890, as estimated by field personnel based on its physical characteristics. The property was originally built for residential purposes, and its use remains unchanged. The primary exterior material is wood. With its elaborate exterior detailing and use of varying textures and materials, the building is indicative of the Queen Anne style, which was popular during the late nineteenth century. It presents an irregular plan. The building has a hipped roof with tile-covered roofing. The internal brick chimney has a corbelled cap. The windows are double-hung with wood sashes. The single-door primary entrance has a wood doorway and frame. Door feature(s) include the following: transoms. Porch feature(s) include the following: classical columns. Landscape feature(s) include the following: plantings, retaining wall, sidewalk, steps. Ancillary buildings on the property include a garage and back house.
