Architectural Description

General Architectural Description:

The building at 614 N Rogers St is a one-story single-family house built about 1890, as estimated by field personnel based on its physical characteristics. The property was originally built for residential purposes, and its use remains unchanged. The primary exterior material is wood. The house displays features that are associated with the Folk Victorian style, a domestic architectural expression that relied on the use of applied architectural ornamentation on more traditional house forms. It has an L-shaped plan with a front-projecting wing on the front facade. The building has a cross-gabled roof. The building has double-hung windows. The building has a single-door primary entrance. Porch feature(s) include the following: turned wood posts, spindlework trim. Landscape feature(s) include the following: fencing.
